

Name _____

The Social Media Showdown

Open Ended Questions

1. How do you think Sarah and Max's different interests and talents contributed to their success in the Social Media Showdown?
2. Reflect on the message conveyed by the surprise announcement of both Sarah and Max winning the competition. What do you think it says about the value of collaboration and friendship in the world of social media?
3. In your opinion, what role does creativity play in becoming a successful social media influencer, and how did Sarah and Max showcase their creativity during the competition?
4. How did the Social Media Showdown change Sarah and Max's perspective on social media and their approach to creating content?

