

Name _____

Becoming a Social Media Detective

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What initially caught the protagonist's attention while scrolling through social media?

- a) Pictures of cute puppies
- b) Memes and funny videos
- c) An intriguing post from their friend Sarah
- d) A mysterious message from an unknown user

2. Why did the protagonist offer to help Sarah with her missing left sock?

- a) They were an experienced detective.
- b) They found the disappearance of the sock unusual.
- c) They wanted to buy Sarah a new sock.
- d) They had a collection of left socks.

3. How did the protagonist first begin their investigation into the missing sock?

- a) They contacted the police department.
- b) They searched Sarah's house.
- c) They analyzed a clue in a photo.
- d) They interviewed Sarah's friends.

4. What was the common factor among Sarah's friends who had also experienced missing socks?

- a) They used the same brand of laundry detergent.
- b) They were all avid hikers.
- c) They had large sock collections.
- d) They lived in the same neighborhood.

5. What secret ingredient in the laundry detergent was responsible for the sock disappearances?

- a) Sock shrinkage formula
- b) Sock-repelling chemical
- c) Sock-destroying enzymes
- d) Sock magnetism

