

Name _____

Social Media Saga

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. The main characters are Alex, obsessed with selfies; Bella, a meme enthusiast; Chris, who loves filters; and Dana, a hashtag queen, all driven by their desire for social media fame and online popularity.
2. The gang's plan was to create a "Taco Tuesday" flash mob by dressing as tacos, dancing to a taco-themed song, and filming the event to go viral. They prepared by crafting taco costumes and practicing their dance moves.
3. Mr. Grumbleton, the school principal, reacted by mistaking the flash mob for a taco-themed rebellion against school lunches. This misunderstanding led to laughter as he brandished a giant tomato in defense of the cafeteria's honor.
4. The video of the flash mob turned out to be a hit online, albeit not for the reasons Alex had anticipated. The gang learned that unexpected and absurd moments could bring laughter and joy, even if their initial goal was social media fame.
5. The story conveys that the pursuit of online popularity through social media can lead to comical and unexpected situations. It highlights the importance of finding humor in unexpected moments and suggests that online and offline experiences should be balanced to avoid obsession.

