

Name _____

Socialism: A Different System of Government

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is socialism?
  - a) A system where everyone competes for the same resources
  - b) A system of government where wealth and resources are shared more equally among citizens
  - c) A type of group project where each person does their own thing
  - d) A system where the government controls everything, and individual choices are restricted.

2. What is one advantage of socialism?
  - a) Limited individual freedom
  - b) Equitable distribution of wealth and resources
  - c) Lack of social safety nets
  - d) Reduction in extreme poverty

3. Which disadvantage of socialism is related to government control over individual choices?
  - a) Limited individual freedom
  - b) Economic challenges
  - c) Lack of incentive
  - d) Resource allocation

4. How does socialism aim to reduce extreme poverty?
  - a) By promoting competition among citizens
  - b) By providing access to essential services regardless of income
  - c) By discouraging collective decision-making
  - d) By increasing individual freedoms

5. What is a criticism of socialism related to resource allocation?
  - a) It leads to more efficient distribution of resources.
  - b) It can lead to disputes and disagreements about how resources should be distributed.
  - c) It encourages individual initiative and hard work.
  - d) It results in less government control.

