

Name _____

Can Solar Power Help Solve the Climate Crisis?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main cause of the climate crisis?
 - A. Too much sunlight
 - B. Burning fossil fuels
 - C. Growing too many plants
 - D. Using solar panels

2. How do solar panels help the environment?
 - A. They create more fossil fuels
 - B. They make the sun brighter
 - C. They turn sunlight into clean electricity
 - D. They trap heat in the atmosphere

3. What is one problem with solar power?
 - A. It doesn't work at night
 - B. It uses too much water
 - C. It makes loud noises
 - D. It causes air pollution

4. What does "renewable" mean in the passage?
 - A. Something that can be used only once
 - B. Something that is dangerous
 - C. Something that needs batteries
 - D. Something that never runs out

5. Why are scientists working on better batteries?
 - A. To make solar panels cheaper
 - B. To help people watch more TV
 - C. To store solar energy for when the sun isn't shining
 - D. To turn fossil fuels into solar power

