

Name _____

The School of Sorcery and Magic

Short Answer Key

1. Headmistress Morgana is the head of the School of Sorcery and Magic. Her role is to preside over the school, welcome students, and oversee the teaching of magical subjects.
2. Students study subjects such as Astronomy and Celestial Magic, Herbology and Potion-Making, and Magical Creatures and their Care, among others.
3. Exciting events and festivities at the school include the Sorcerer's Cup magical tournament, the Enchanted Masquerade Ball, and the Great Midsummer Bonfire.
4. The most important lesson taught at the School of Sorcery and Magic is the responsibility that comes with magical powers. It is significant because it emphasizes using magic for the greater good, upholding the laws of magic, and protecting the realm from dark forces.
5. Answers may vary. Possible specialties could include mastering elemental magic to control natural forces, communicating with mystical creatures to bridge the human-magical world gap, or mastering the art of enchanting objects to create magical artifacts.

