

Name _____

Sounds of Change

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was the purpose of music in the Civil Rights Movement?
 - a) To entertain people at parties
 - b) To keep people from protesting
 - c) To teach people how to dance
 - d) To bring people together and give them courage

2. Which song became an anthem of the Civil Rights Movement?
 - a) "Jingle Bells"
 - b) "A Change Is Gonna Come"
 - c) "We Shall Overcome"
 - d) "Happy Birthday"

3. How did literature help the Civil Rights Movement?
 - a) Writers shared stories about justice and equality
 - b) Writers wrote books only for children
 - c) People stopped reading books during the movement
 - d) Literature was not part of the Civil Rights Movement

4. What did artists like Jacob Lawrence and Gordon Parks do?
 - a) Created music about civil rights
 - b) Painted and photographed images of the movement
 - c) Wrote laws about voting
 - d) Led marches in Washington, D.C.

5. How does the art and music of the Civil Rights Movement still matter today?
 - a) People still sing the songs and learn from the books and images
 - b) The music and art disappeared after the movement ended
 - c) People only listen to these songs on the radio
 - d) The Civil Rights Movement was not influenced by art and music

