3. Mia's life probably changed in many ways. She became a famous chef, her dishes became even more delicious, and she was able to help her friends and neighbors achieve their dreams.
4. I do believe in the power of wishes coming true because sometimes when we wish for something and work hard towards it, it can become a reality. If I had the magical spaghetti, I would wish for the ability to fly because it would be amazing to explore the world from the sky and see new places.
