

Name _____

Unlocking Communication: A Day in the Life of a Speech-Language Pathologist

Short Answer

1. What is the primary responsibility of a Speech-Language Pathologist?
2. Name one important skill that Speech-Language Pathologists need to have.
3. Give an example of a task a Speech-Language Pathologist might do in the afternoon.
4. Why is attention to detail important for Speech-Language Pathologists?
5. How do Speech-Language Pathologists collaborate with other healthcare professionals?

