

Name _____

Arachnid Atlas: Exploring Common Spiders of North America

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is a distinguishing feature of the garden spider?
 - A) It hunts on the ground
 - B) It has a red hourglass marking
 - C) It builds intricate webs
 - D) It has long, delicate legs

2. What type of spider relies on speed and stealth to catch prey?
 - A) Garden spider
 - B) Wolf spider
 - C) Cellar spider
 - D) Black widow spider

3. Where can cellar spiders often be found?
 - A) In gardens
 - B) In dark corners and crevices
 - C) In deserts
 - D) In wooded areas

4. What is a distinguishing feature of the black widow spider?
 - A) It has a red hourglass marking
 - B) It is docile and harmless
 - C) It is found primarily in the Pacific Northwest
 - D) It builds large webs

5. Which spider is known for its large size and docile nature?
 - A) Garden spider
 - B) Wolf spider
 - C) Black widow spider
 - D) Desert tarantula

