

Name _____

The Mystery of the Spooky Treehouse

Short Answer Key

1. The group of friends decided to explore the spooky treehouse because they had heard stories about strange noises and flickering lights coming from it at night, and they couldn't resist the mystery any longer.
2. Inside the treehouse, the friends found dusty books filled with tales of hidden treasures, maps to uncharted lands, drawings of magical creatures, and a chest with a lock that seemed impossible to open.
3. The friends felt excited and intrigued when they realized that the treehouse once belonged to a famous explorer.
4. After deciphering the final riddle, the friends discovered a hidden passage that led them to an old oak tree, where the explorer's treasure was buried beneath its roots.
5. The town viewed the friends as heroes after they returned with the treasure, and the spooky treehouse was no longer a place of fear but a symbol of their adventurous spirit.
