

Name _____

The Great School-Wide Sports Showdown

Short Answer Key

1. Principal Henderson emphasized the importance of sportsmanship and teamwork during the opening ceremony of the Sports Showdown.
2. The ninth-grade team won the tug-of-war competition, likely due to their sheer strength and determination.
3. The basketball shootout event had an exciting atmosphere. The seventh-grade team showcased their accuracy, the eighth-grade team demonstrated speed and agility, and the ninth-grade team displayed three-point shooting skills.
4. The annual Sports Showdown meant more than just competition to the students. It was a day to celebrate their school's spirit and values, strengthen friendships, and learn valuable lessons about working together and supporting one another.
5. The school-wide sports competition promoted sportsmanship and teamwork by encouraging students to collaborate as a team, support their peers, and compete in a friendly and respectful manner.

