

Name _____

How Does a Squirrel Communicate?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What sound might a squirrel make to warn others of danger?
  - A. Barking like a dog
  - B. Croaking like a frog
  - C. Mooing like a cow
  - D. Chirping or chattering

2. What does a squirrel often do with its tail when it feels threatened?
  - A. Drags it on the ground
  - B. Flicks it back and forth
  - C. Curls it tightly around its body
  - D. Waves it in a circle

3. How do squirrels use scents to communicate?
  - A. By marking their territory or attracting a mate
  - B. By scaring predators away
  - C. By finding food buried underground
  - D. By warning others of danger

4. What is "deceptive caching"?
  - A. When a squirrel hides a nut in one spot and digs it up later
  - B. When a squirrel pretends to bury food to trick others
  - C. When a squirrel shares food with another squirrel
  - D. When a squirrel leaves its food in a tree

5. Why might a squirrel stand on its hind legs?
  - A. To rest its front legs
  - B. To reach higher branches
  - C. To signal danger and look around
  - D. To play with other squirrels

