Superhero Squirrel Saves the Day!

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary, but students might feel grateful, relieved, and impressed if Scooter came to their rescue at the picnic because it would be an unexpected and heroic act.
2. Students might come up with creative superhero names and costumes for Scooter, such as "The Nutty Avenger" with a cape made of acorns. They could explain their choices based on Scooter's abilities and personality.
3. Recognizing and honoring local heroes like Scooter can inspire a sense of community and gratitude. It can also encourage others to perform acts of kindness and bravery.
4. As Scooter's sidekick, students might imagine going on adventures to solve wildlife-related problems, like rescuing birds stuck in trees or helping lost animals find their way home. Challenges could include solving environmental mysteries or protecting the park from threats.
