

Name _____

The Journey of Pride and Prejudice: Start, Middle, and End

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the initial conflict of "Pride and Prejudice" at the start of the novel?
 - a. The search for a missing treasure
 - b. The pursuit of advantageous marriages for the Bennet daughters
 - c. A mystery involving a secret society
 - d. The battle between two rival families

2. Who is Mr. Darcy's close friend and the object of Jane Bennet's affection?
 - a. Mr. Collins
 - b. Mr. Wickham
 - c. Mr. Charles Bingley
 - d. Mr. Fitzwilliam Darcy

3. What major event threatens the Bennet family's reputation and financial security in the middle of the novel?
 - a. A devastating fire at Longbourn
 - b. The outbreak of a contagious illness
 - c. The elopement of Lydia Bennet
 - d. A financial crisis in the Bennet family

4. How does the story of "Pride and Prejudice" conclude in the end?
 - a. With a tragic death
 - b. With a series of weddings
 - c. With a mystery left unsolved
 - d. With a journey to a distant land

5. What important lesson do the characters of "Pride and Prejudice" learn by the end of the story?
 - a. The value of wealth and social status
 - b. The importance of holding grudges
 - c. The significance of love, integrity, and character in relationships
 - d. The need for revenge and vindication

