

Name _____

The Journey of Pride and Prejudice: Start, Middle, and End

Short Answer

1. Describe the initial impression that Elizabeth Bennet has of Mr. Darcy at the start of the novel.
2. How does Mr. Darcy's proposal to Elizabeth Bennet in the middle of the story contribute to the plot's development?
3. Explain the significance of the elopement crisis involving Lydia Bennet and Mr. Wickham in the middle of the novel.
4. What character transformations occur by the end of "Pride and Prejudice," particularly in the case of Elizabeth Bennet and Mr. Darcy?
5. How does the conclusion of "Pride and Prejudice" reinforce the novel's central themes?

