

Name _____

The Journey of Pride and Prejudice: Start, Middle, and End

Short Answer Key

1. Elizabeth initially has a negative impression of Mr. Darcy, perceiving him as proud and aloof.
2. Mr. Darcy's proposal to Elizabeth in the middle of the story marks a turning point in their relationship. It initially causes conflict due to Elizabeth's refusal, but it eventually leads to their engagement, setting the stage for the resolution of misunderstandings.
3. The elopement crisis involving Lydia Bennet and Mr. Wickham threatens the family's reputation and financial security, serving as a central conflict in the novel.
4. By the end of the novel, both Elizabeth Bennet and Mr. Darcy have overcome their pride and prejudice. Elizabeth values Mr. Darcy's integrity and character, while he recognizes the worth of her wit and independence.
5. The conclusion of "Pride and Prejudice" reinforces the central themes of the novel by showcasing the triumph of love, integrity, and character in relationships through the multiple weddings.

