

Name _____

How Do Stick Insects Reproduce?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is parthenogenesis?
  - A. The ability to change color
  - B. Reproduction without a mate
  - C. Laying eggs in water
  - D. Hunting for food at night

2. Where do stick insects lay their eggs?
  - A. In nests in trees
  - B. Underwater
  - C. Inside other insects
  - D. In the soil, on leaves, or on the ground

3. How long does it take for stick insect eggs to hatch?
  - A. A few days
  - B. Several weeks
  - C. Several months to a year
  - D. Over two years

4. What happens to a stick insect after it lays its eggs?
  - A. It leaves the eggs, and the young survive on their own.
  - B. It cares for the nymphs.
  - C. It guards the eggs until they hatch.
  - D. It eats the eggs for nutrients.

5. What are baby stick insects called?
  - A. Larvae
  - B. Hatchlings
  - C. Nymphs
  - D. Pupae

