

Name _____

Stolen Secrets

Short Answer Key

1. The mole is Agent Mark. He steals classified documents out of greed, intending to sell them to the highest bidder.
2. Agent Rachel's main goal is to track down Agent Mark, the mole, and recover the stolen classified documents to prevent them from falling into the wrong hands.
3. The climax involves a high-stakes showdown between Agent Rachel and Agent Mark, where they battle to control the fate of the stolen secrets. It is a battle of wits and determination, and the outcome will determine the nation's security.
4. Agent Rachel likely feels a mix of anger, betrayal, and determination when she confronts Agent Mark. She may also feel a strong sense of duty to apprehend him and recover the stolen secrets.
5. Agent Rachel faces the challenges of navigating a web of deception and danger, and tracking down the mole, Agent Mark, who constantly stays one step ahead by using his inside knowledge of the agency's operations. Her pursuit tests her determination and resourcefulness, leading to a high-stakes showdown that ultimately determines the security of the nation.

