

Name _____

Badminton Strategy: Outsmarting Your Opponent

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary objective in badminton?
 - a) To hit the shuttlecock as hard as possible
 - b) To score points by getting the shuttlecock over the net and into the opponent's side
 - c) To perform fancy tricks with the racket
 - d) To tire out the opponent by making them run around the court

2. Why is shot placement crucial in badminton?
 - a) It makes the game more challenging for the player
 - b) It helps you showcase your powerful shots
 - c) It can force your opponent into difficult positions
 - d) It is a requirement in the rules of badminton

3. What does "deception" mean in the context of badminton strategy?
 - a) Hitting the shuttlecock with maximum power
 - b) Pretending to hit one type of shot but hitting another
 - c) Communicating with your opponent during the game
 - d) Playing all shots at the same speed

4. How can changing the pace of your shots affect your opponent?
 - a) It can make them fall asleep on the court
 - b) It forces them to predict your shots more accurately
 - c) It keeps them off balance and can tire them out
 - d) It doesn't have any impact on the game

5. In doubles badminton, why is communication with your partner important?
 - a) To share gossip about the opponents
 - b) To coordinate movements and cover the court effectively
 - c) To distract the opponents with loud talking
 - d) To argue about who should take each shot

