

Name _____

Badminton Strategy: Outsmarting Your Opponent

Short Answer Key

1. Answers may vary but could include "clear" or "drop shot."
2. Answers may vary but could include "pretending to smash but doing a drop shot instead."
3. Good footwork is essential in badminton because it allows you to move quickly and be in the right position to hit the shuttlecock effectively.
4. Answers may vary, but examples could include adapting to your opponent's weaknesses or changing your shot selection based on the situation.
5. Partners in doubles badminton should work together as a team to cover the court effectively and coordinate their movements.

