

Name _____

How Hobbies and Shared Interests Can Strengthen Relationships

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on a personal experience where a shared interest played a significant role in strengthening a relationship. Describe the interest, the people involved, and how it affected the relationship.
2. Imagine a scenario where two friends have differing levels of interest in a shared hobby. Offer advice on how they can balance their interests and maintain a healthy friendship.
3. Discuss the role of communication in resolving conflicts that may arise from shared interests. Provide examples of effective communication strategies in such situations.
4. Share a situation where you successfully introduced someone to a new interest or hobby. Explain how it enriched your relationship and encouraged personal growth.

