

Name _____

The Student's Revolution

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What inspired Sarah Davis to challenge the status quo and become a symbol of a political movement?
 - A. Her desire for fame and wealth
 - B. Her passion for change and frustration with the current system
 - C. Pressure from her parents
 - D. A job offer from a politician

2. What did Sarah call for in her speech at Progressville University?
 - A. The need for a new era of politics
 - B. The importance of maintaining the status quo
 - C. The exclusion of young voices in politics
 - D. The benefits of student debt

3. What was the name of the political movement that Sarah founded?
 - A. Youth for Progress
 - B. Status Quo Forever
 - C. The Old Guard
 - D. The Political Veterans

4. How did Sarah and her fellow activists engage in grassroots activism?
 - A. By ignoring political issues
 - B. By holding town hall meetings and protests
 - C. By discouraging young people from participating in politics
 - D. By siding with entrenched politicians

5. What was the outcome of the mayoral election in Progressville?
 - A. Sarah lost the election
 - B. Sarah became the youngest mayor in the city's history
 - C. The election had no impact on the city's politics
 - D. Sarah withdrew from the race

