

Name _____

The Unforgettable Summer Journey

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. If you were the narrator, what sights or experiences would you want to share in the journal found in the bookstore? Why?
2. How do you think the connections and relationships the narrator formed during their journey enriched their experience? What might you value most in such a journey?
3. What challenges and rewards do you think come with exploring new places and leaving one's mark, both physically and emotionally, in unfamiliar locations?
4. In your view, what does this story teach us about the significance of travel, discovery, and the impact of genuine connections with people and places?

