

Name _____

Summer's Freedom

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the Haiku describe happening when "School's final bell rings"?

- a) The start of a new school year
- b) The end of the school day
- c) The beginning of summer vacation
- d) The end of summer vacation

2. Where is the sense of freedom found in the Haiku?

- a) In school
- b) In empty halls
- c) In crowded classrooms
- d) In winter

3. What is described as waiting in the Haiku?

- a) Homework assignments
- b) The school day
- c) Summer's promise
- d) The final bell

4. When does "Summer's promise" in the Haiku come to fruition?

- a) Immediately after school ends
- b) During the school year
- c) When the final bell rings
- d) In the winter

5. What is the main theme of the Haiku "Summer's Freedom"?

- a) The joys of attending school
- b) The excitement of winter break
- c) The anticipation of summer vacation
- d) The benefits of empty halls

