

Name _____

Sunlight: The Magic Ingredient for Plant Growth

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine a world without sunlight. How might it affect the growth of plants and the environment as a whole?
2. Describe the process of photosynthesis in your own words, and explain why it is vital for both plants and other living creatures.
3. Investigate and list three different types of indoor plants that are commonly grown and explain their specific light requirements.
4. How can humans help indoor plants receive adequate light for photosynthesis in a home environment?

