

Name _____

Illinois: Where Surprises Await!

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why is Chicago known as the "Windy City"?
 - A) It experiences strong winds year-round.
 - B) Its politicians were known for being full of hot air.
 - C) It's home to numerous wind turbines.
 - D) It's named after a famous windstorm.

2. Why is Illinois often referred to as the "Land of Lincoln"?
 - A) Because Abraham Lincoln invented land surveying.
 - B) Because the state has vast stretches of open land.
 - C) Because it's the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln.
 - D) Because it's known for its Lincoln green landscapes.

3. What special event draws Superman fans to Metropolis, Illinois?
 - A) The annual superhero parade
 - B) The Superhero Fan Convention
 - C) The Superman Celebration
 - D) The Superman Museum opening

4. What is significant about Morton Arboretum's "Champion Trees" program?
 - A) It honors champions in various sports.
 - B) It recognizes the tallest trees in the world.
 - C) It identifies the largest trees of each species in Illinois.
 - D) It awards prizes to exceptional gardeners.

5. What can visitors expect to find in Collinsville, Illinois, that is an unusual roadside attraction?
 - A) The world's largest rubber duck
 - B) The world's largest ice cream cone
 - C) The world's largest catsup bottle
 - D) The world's largest pencil

