

Name _____

Illinois: Where Surprises Await!

Short Answer Key

1. Chicago's nickname, the "Windy City," originated from its politicians, who were known for being full of hot air during the 19th century.
2. The Lincoln Home National Historic Site in Springfield, Illinois, is significant as the place where Abraham Lincoln lived with his family before becoming the President of the United States.
3. Metropolis, Illinois, is known as the "Hometown of Superman" due to its association with the iconic superhero. The Superman Celebration is an annual event that attracts fans from around the world to celebrate Superman's legacy.
4. Morton Arboretum's "Champion Trees" program contributes to the appreciation of nature and trees in Illinois by recognizing and preserving the largest trees of each species, showcasing the state's natural diversity.
5. The "World's Largest Catsup Bottle" in Collinsville, Illinois, is a quirky roadside attraction that serves as a nostalgic piece of Americana, drawing visitors who are intrigued by its uniqueness.

