

Name _____

The Night of Survival

Open-Ended Questions Answer Key

1. Being on the Titanic during the sinking must have been terrifying, with freezing water and limited lifeboats creating chaos.
2. Acts of bravery remind us of the kindness and courage people can show even in the worst moments.
3. If there were enough lifeboats, more lives could have been saved, and the tragedy might not have been as devastating.
4. The Titanic reminds us to always be prepared and to prioritize safety, no matter how "unsinkable" something seems.

