

Name _____

Fashion Forward: Exploring Sustainability in the Fashion Industry

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is sustainability in the fashion industry?
  - a) Making clothes that are only stylish
  - b) Creating and consuming clothing mindfully and responsibly
  - c) Using as much water and energy as possible
  - d) Making clothes that are cheap and disposable

2. How does sustainable fashion reduce its environmental impact?
  - a) By using large amounts of water and chemicals
  - b) By using organic materials and reducing waste
  - c) By outsourcing production to countries with low labor costs
  - d) By constantly following fast-paced trends

3. What does "slow fashion" encourage consumers to do?
  - a) Buy fewer, high-quality items that last longer
  - b) Buy as many clothes as possible
  - c) Only wear trendy clothes for a short time
  - d) Throw away old clothes regularly

4. What is the difference between recycling and upcycling in fashion?
  - a) Recycling means transforming old garments into something different, while upcycling means turning them into new fabrics.
  - b) Recycling means throwing old clothes away, while upcycling means reusing them.
  - c) Recycling and upcycling are the same thing.
  - d) Recycling means creating new clothes from scratch.

5. What can consumers do to support sustainability in the fashion industry?
  - a) Buy any clothes they like without thinking about it
  - b) Choose brands that use harmful chemicals in their production
  - c) Make thoughtful choices, consider materials, and support sustainable brands
  - d) Only buy clothes that are trendy for the current season

