

Name _____

Urbanization and Our Changing Landscape: Balancing Land Use and Sustainability

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does urbanization involve?
 - a) The shrinking of cities
 - b) The growth and expansion of cities
 - c) The conversion of urban areas into rural ones
 - d) The preservation of natural habitats

2. How can infrastructure development impact the environment during urbanization?
 - a) It helps increase green spaces.
 - b) It can lead to pollution and reduce green areas.
 - c) It has no effect on the environment.
 - d) It helps protect wildlife habitats.

3. What is one major environmental impact of urbanization?
 - a) Increased biodiversity
 - b) Habitat preservation
 - c) Pollution and habitat loss
 - d) Deforestation

4. How can urbanization lead to deforestation?
 - a) By clearing trees to create green spaces
 - b) By increasing tree planting efforts
 - c) By constructing buildings and roads
 - d) By promoting sustainable forest management

5. What is one strategy cities can adopt to balance land use and environmental sustainability?
 - a) Encourage more vehicle use
 - b) Clear natural habitats for development
 - c) Promote sustainable transportation and green spaces
 - d) Increase energy consumption

