

Name _____

Symbols Speak

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the desert symbolize in Stargirl?
 - a) The rules of Mica High
 - b) The loneliness of being different
 - c) Stargirl's free spirit and uniqueness
 - d) A place where students gather after school

2. How is a sunflower similar to Stargirl's personality?
 - a) It is tall and strong, just like her
 - b) It always turns toward the sun, like she spreads kindness
 - c) It grows in the desert, just like she lives in Arizona
 - d) It disappears in the winter, like she disappears from Mica High

3. What happens when Stargirl tries to change herself?
 - a) She becomes more popular and happier
 - b) She feels more connected to the desert
 - c) She loses some of the happiness and energy that made her special
 - d) She decides to leave Mica High and never return

4. Why does Leo struggle with Stargirl's uniqueness?
 - a) He wants to be different too but doesn't know how
 - b) He is jealous of how much attention she gets
 - c) He thinks she should be more like the other girls at school
 - d) He loves Stargirl's personality but also wants to fit in

5. What lesson do the desert and the sunflower help teach?
 - a) Being true to yourself is more important than fitting in
 - b) Change is necessary to make friends
 - c) Following the crowd is always the best choice
 - d) Schools should be more like deserts

