

Name _____

The Symphony of Colors

Short Answer Key

1. The shade of golden yellow in the poem represents joy and happiness.
2. The color green symbolizes life, nature's beauty, and renewal.
3. The colorless void is described as a canvas blank, a pause in the dream, and a space for new emotions to find.
4. The color orange represents warmth and zest, bringing a sense of coziness and vibrancy to the dream.
5. The dreamworld in the poem allows the narrator to explore and experience a range of emotions through the vibrant colors, enriching their dreams and understanding of life.

