

Name _____

The Taco That Ate My Dog

It was a sunny afternoon in the quiet town of Munchville, where nothing exciting ever happened. That was until the arrival of a food truck like no other - "Taco Titan." The truck was massive, with a giant taco on top that seemed to beckon all the hungry souls in town.

Among the curious crowd was Max, a young boy with an insatiable appetite for tacos. He approached the Taco Titan with enthusiasm, hoping to savor the best taco of his life. Little did he know that this taco was about to change everything.

Max ordered a colossal taco called "The Gargantuan," a monstrous creation that required two hands to hold. He took a massive bite, and that's when it happened - the taco started to grow! It grew larger and larger, until it was as big as a car.

Max panicked and dropped the taco, but it continued to expand, rolling through the town like a giant, tortilla-covered boulder. People screamed and ran for cover as the taco devoured everything in its path, from fire hydrants to park benches.

Max knew he had to stop this culinary catastrophe. He grabbed his skateboard and pursued the taco, determined to save his town. With each roll, the taco grew more powerful, bouncing over cars and houses.

Finally, Max had a plan. He raced ahead of the taco and reached the town's giant ketchup bottle sculpture. He turned the nozzle, squirting ketchup all over the road. The taco, unable to resist the delicious condiment, slowed down and came to a stop.

Max's plan had worked! The taco was defeated, and the town was saved from the taco takeover. The people cheered for Max, and the Taco Titan was banished from Munchville forever.

As for Max, he became a local hero and even got a free lifetime supply of tacos. But he learned a valuable lesson that day - never underestimate the power of a taco, especially one called "The Gargantuan."