

Name _____

Talk Show Turmoil

Short Answer Key

1. Lisa's support for the Harmony Act created controversy among her viewers because they had come to expect unbiased reporting from her, and her sudden shift in position felt like a betrayal of their trust.
2. Lisa responded to the backlash by defending her decision and arguing that the Harmony Act was necessary for the city's security.
3. The withdrawal of advertisers had a negative impact on Lisa's show as it put financial strain on the production and affected the show's sustainability.
4. Lisa's colleagues had varied reactions, with some defending her right to express her opinion, even if they disagreed, while others distanced themselves to protect their careers.
5. Lisa had to decide whether to stand firm in her controversial stance or publicly retract her support for the Harmony Act to regain the trust of her viewers and advertisers.

