The Jazz Mystery with Whiskers the Talking Cat

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary. Students might want to be the lead investigator, the one who interviews witnesses, the organizer of the detective club, or the one who deciphers clues.
2. The people in Harmonyville likely felt surprised and delighted when they discovered the hidden jazz club. They probably enjoyed dancing and listening to the smooth jazz music the most during the festival.
3. Students might want to explore mysteries like treasure hunting, solving riddles, or discovering hidden secrets in their neighborhood or school.
4. Whiskers was a good detective because of his keen sense of smell, which helped him find hidden clues, and his ability to communicate with the children, allowing them to work together effectively as a team.
