

Name _____

The Magical Adventure of Talking Trees

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The talking trees may have chosen the night of the full moon because it is often associated with magic and mystery. The full moon's bright and enchanting presence might enhance their ability to grant wishes.
2. Max might have meant that he wished for a life filled with exciting and new experiences. He wanted to explore and discover new things, making each day an adventure.
3. The talking trees' wisdom and stories helped the kids appreciate the history and beauty of the forest. They also learned valuable life lessons about kindness, friendship, and the importance of nature.
4. Answers may vary. Example: If I could make a wish to the talking trees, I would wish for the ability to speak all languages fluently because I believe it would help me connect with people from different cultures and understand the world better.

