

Name _____

Talking Barn

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is personification?
 - a) Giving animals magical powers.
 - b) Writing a story with only human characters.
 - c) Describing a setting in great detail.
 - d) Making animals talk, think, and act like humans.

2. How does E.B. White use personification with Wilbur?
 - a) He makes Wilbur walk on two legs.
 - b) He gives Wilbur human emotions, thoughts, and speech.
 - c) Wilbur learns how to spin a web.
 - d) Wilbur becomes a superhero.

3. Why does Charlotte's ability to write in her web show personification?
 - a) Spiders can write in real life.
 - b) It helps her become famous.
 - c) It gives her a unique human-like skill.
 - d) The words appear magically.

4. What makes Templeton different from Wilbur and Charlotte?
 - a) He does not have any human-like qualities.
 - b) He is sneaky and selfish but still helps sometimes.
 - c) He is a friendly and helpful rat.
 - d) He is the main character of the story.

5. Why does White use personification in Charlotte's Web?
 - a) To make the animals seem real and meaningful to readers.
 - b) To confuse readers about what animals can really do.
 - c) To turn the barn into a magical place.
 - d) To focus only on Wilbur's adventures.

