

Name _____

Talking Barn

Short Answer Key

1. Personification makes Wilbur relatable by giving him emotions, thoughts, and fears, just like humans.
2. Charlotte is an example of personification because she talks, makes plans, and even writes words in her web.
3. It helps show their friendship because they can talk to each other, share feelings, and help one another.
4. Templeton's sneaky personality makes him different from the other animals and adds humor to the story.
5. The goose repeats words excitedly, making her seem fun and full of energy.

