

Name _____

Education for All: A Teacher's Journey

Short Answer Key

1. Ms. Thompson chose to teach at Harmony Elementary because she wanted to make a difference in the lives of students in a disadvantaged district and believed in the power of education.
2. Ms. Thompson's fundraising campaign provided supplies, books, and educational materials for her students, transforming her classroom into a well-equipped learning space.
3. Some of Ms. Thompson's students came to school hungry and faced challenges at home, which affected their ability to learn and succeed in school.
4. Ms. Thompson's dedication inspired parents to become more involved in their children's education, and other teachers were inspired to follow her example. Together, they advocated for increased funding for schools in disadvantaged districts.

