

Name _____

The Teacher's Secret Identity

Open Ended Questions

1. Discuss the role of humor in the story and how it added to the narrative. Provide examples of humorous elements from the story.
2. In your opinion, why do you think Mr. Johnson chose to keep his superhero identity a secret from most people, including his students? How do you think his students would react if they discovered his secret?
3. How might Captain Grammar's actions have influenced the town's attitude toward proper grammar and literacy? Do you think humor can be an effective tool for teaching important lessons?
4. If you were a superhero, what would your secret identity be, and what mission or cause would you champion? Explain your choice and how it relates to your personal values or interests.

