

Name _____

Teamwork Triumphs

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why was the work easier when the animals helped?
 - a) The Hen worked faster than usual.
 - b) The animals made the Hen do everything.
 - c) They shared the work, so no one had to do it alone.
 - d) The wheat grew by itself.

2. What lesson did the animals learn in the story?
 - a) The Hen will always do the work no matter what.
 - b) It is better to let someone else do all the work.
 - c) Bread tastes better when eaten alone.
 - d) Helping with hard work makes rewards feel more special.

3. How is this version of The Little Red Hen different from the original story?
 - a) The animals refuse to help.
 - b) The Hen decides not to bake the bread.
 - c) The animals help, and they all share the reward.
 - d) The bread never gets made.

4. Why does the Little Red Hen decide to share the bread in this version?
 - a) She wants to be nice even though no one helped.
 - b) She realizes that teamwork makes work easier.
 - c) The animals trick her into sharing.
 - d) The bread is too big for her to eat alone.

5. What would have happened if the animals had refused to help?
 - a) The Hen would have done all the work alone.
 - b) The animals would still get to eat the bread.
 - c) The bread would not taste as good.
 - d) The Hen would have left the farm.

