

Name _____

The Enchanted Teapot

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the theme of responsibility in the story and how Anika's actions with the enchanted teapot reflect her growing sense of responsibility.
2. If you had an enchanted teapot like Anika's, what wish would you make, and how would you use it to benefit your community or the world? How would you avoid the negative consequences?
3. Explain the significance of tea in the story and how it represents the power of Anika's wishes and her connection to the world.
4. How did Anika's use of the enchanted teapot ultimately benefit Bombay and its residents? What positive changes did she bring about?

