

Name _____

Teasing vs. Bullying: Understanding the Difference

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one key characteristic of teasing?
 - a) Intent to harm
 - b) Repetitive and persistent
 - c) Unwanted behavior
 - d) Light-heartedness and playfulness

2. In teasing, both parties involved usually participate willingly in a _____.
 - a) Power struggle
 - b) One-sided interaction
 - c) Playful exchange
 - d) Harmful act

3. Which behavior involves an intent to harm, intimidate, or control someone?
 - a) Teasing
 - b) Bullying
 - c) Joking
 - d) Playfulness

4. Which of the following is a common consequence of bullying?
 - a) Laughter and camaraderie
 - b) Anxiety and depression
 - c) Light-hearted banter
 - d) Reciprocal teasing

5. What is a key difference between teasing and bullying?
 - a) Teasing is repetitive, while bullying is not.
 - b) Teasing involves an intent to harm, while bullying does not.
 - c) Teasing requires the victim's consent, while bullying does not.
 - d) Teasing is light-hearted and playful, while bullying involves power struggles.

