

Name _____

Teasing vs. Bullying: Understanding the Difference

Short Answer

1. Provide an example of teasing and explain why it is considered teasing.
2. Describe the intent behind bullying and why it sets it apart from teasing.
3. Explain the importance of consent in distinguishing between teasing and bullying.
4. What can individuals do when they witness teasing that may be crossing the line into bullying?
5. How might the emotional consequences of bullying differ from the emotional impact of teasing?

