

Name _____

Shigeru Miyamoto: The Man Who Created Mario

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. His childhood love for adventure and exploring nature helped him design games with fun and creative worlds, like The Legend of Zelda.
2. They are special because they are full of adventure, creativity, and exciting challenges that make players think and explore.
3. I would ask him what his favorite game is because it would be interesting to know which one he enjoyed making the most.
4. We can learn that creativity, imagination, and hard work can lead to amazing inventions that bring joy to millions of people.

