Susan Wojcicki: The Woman Who Led YouTube

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. We can learn that believing in big ideas, taking risks, and working hard can lead to great success.
2. YouTube has changed the way people learn by offering free educational videos and allowing people to share their ideas worldwide.
3. I would ask Susan how she convinced Google to buy YouTube because that decision changed the internet forever.
4. More women should work in technology because diversity brings new ideas and helps make better products for everyone.
