

Name _____

Vint Cerf & Bob Kahn: The Fathers of the Internet

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Without the Internet, people would have a harder time learning, communicating, and finding information quickly.
2. It was important because their idea eventually changed the world, even though many people didn't believe in it at first.
3. I would ask them what their biggest challenge was because I want to know how they solved difficult problems.
4. We can learn that believing in your ideas, working hard, and not giving up can lead to great achievements.

