

Name _____

Tech Obsession: The Screens We Can't Put Down

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the slam poem?
 - A. The benefits of technology addiction
 - B. The addictive nature of technology and its impact
 - C. The need for more screens and devices
 - D. The joy of social media engagement

2. What does the poem suggest about the effect of technology addiction on real-life connections?
 - A. It strengthens real-life connections.
 - B. It has no effect on real-life connections.
 - C. It slowly erases real-life connections.
 - D. It helps in creating deeper connections.

3. How does the poem describe the impact of screens on our generation?
 - A. As inspiring and life-enhancing
 - B. As a tool that should be used constantly
 - C. As addictive and potentially isolating
 - D. As a way to cherish the Earth

4. What does the poem mean by "dopamine hits"?
 - A. The feeling of happiness from spending time with friends
 - B. The chemical reactions in our brain when we receive likes and comments
 - C. The addictive nature of technology
 - D. The need for more digital devices

5. What message does the poem convey about finding a balance with technology?
 - A. It suggests we should never use technology.
 - B. It encourages us to use technology constantly.
 - C. It advises us to find a balance between technology and real-life experiences.
 - D. It says technology is not useful at all.

