

Name _____

Tech Obsession: The Screens We Can't Put Down

Short Answer

1. How does the poem describe the addictive nature of screens and technology?
2. What is the poet's hope for the future regarding technology and screens?
3. How does the poem suggest that technology affects our ability to be present in the real world?
4. Can you provide an example from your own life where you felt the addictive nature of technology?
5. What is the significance of the line "Let's cherish the Earth" in the poem?

